Wednesday April 2nd 1913

I arrived at headquarters at 8 A.M.
 I gave Srgt Flynn instructions to make an investigation as to how Arker Merrell and Condit were doing business in this City.
 I told him the Mayor had a letter from Frank Luke complaining of receiving no protection from the City. I told Flynn to report to me in writing the result of his investigation.
 Leon Shockley Col and James Lewis White were arrested by Mr. Donald and Flynn charged with breaking into Ike Richards store and stealing

Overcoats trousers James Lewis said the Col fellow had nothing to do with entering the store that he alone entered the store but said that Shockley received pay for the sale of one suite of clothes. Lewis also admitted that he stole a bottle of whiskey from Henry Windom's Hotel and bottles of whiskey from the eastern Betting Co, wagon on Plainfield Ave.

I saw the Mayor at 5 P.M. at his office talked with him in reference to herman question and Hannah Luke's letter. I told the Mayor that I was going to lecture on Thursday

Dearest Clear day look like snow this evening

I arrived at headquarters at 8 a.m. found everything OK (nice morning) Mr. Adam Hood called on me this a.m.
 In reference to his case he thanked me for any action I may have taken in his behalf. the Probation Officer was here this morning he had several of his boys paying him a visit on Probation, the Judge suspended sentence on two boys that were stealing tires from an auto the tires were stolen on the 7th day of October 1913 and were sold to Frank Finn the junk man on Spooner Ave. Officer Martin Flattery informed me that there were two gamblers from Newark here trying to find a place to gamble that they were around with Coyle & Morreller until until two o'clock this morning, said he saw nothing of them during the fore part of the night Sergt Flynn told me this morning that he was still looking for the driver that sold the Sieguor to Hannah Linke on last Saturday he has spent two days on this job now. Higgins is so huffed up that I never can tell him what to do any more seems to be smacked up with his own importance nothing of importance happened during the day I went to the Theatre in
